

Policy

All NJCU telephones are restricted to on-campus and local calling. Long distance calls can be made on any of these telephones by using an authorization code. All copiers are restricted and can only be used by those with an authorization code.