Senate Student Affairs Committee Report

The Committee met on Zoom on Thursday, December 9th to discuss the changes to the Student Code of Conduct that will begin in the Spring 2022 semester. Jodi Bailey, Vice President for Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, serves on the committee and explained the revisions to the Code of Conduct, such as: 1.) It needed to be updated for a more online system, including with terminology that aligns with online classes 2.) It now includes an amnesty policy for reporting purposes. 3.) It updated the names of people that are reporters and resources for students. Dr. Bailey has been offering discussion times with faculty, staff, and students to go over the changes to the Student Code of Conduct.
